

Display Agreement between Artists/Collectors and The Friends of the Rockaway Beach Library.

3/1/2024

The Friends of the Rockaway Beach Library agree to display the artwork and/or collections of the above. The artists/collectors agree to install their work on the wall display/the display trifold or in the display case. The artists/collectors agree as to which display space(s) they will use when the reservations are made.

As the art work/collections can be seen from all parts of the library, the artists/collectors agree that their work is suitable for all ages. No work that is of a partisan nature or advertising designed for individual or commercial profit or gain may be displayed. The artists/collectors also agree to take down the displays after the display has been up for 6 weeks unless the artists/collectors and the Friends agree to display the work for a longer time.

No artwork or collector items should display selling prices. The artists/collectors can provide their contact information so that visitors to the library may contact them for more information about their work.

The individuals agree to hold the Friends of the Rockaway Beach Library harmless for any damage that occurs while the art/collections are being installed for display or while the art/collection are on display at the library or while the art/collections are being taken down and must sign such document prior to installation of the art/collection.

Hold Harmless Agreement- Friends of the Rockaway Beach Library

Each participant, collection provider or the designated signatory must sign this agreement for the display to be on view in the Rockaway Beach Library. If a child (under 16) is the owner of the display, a parent or guardian must sign.

"I understand that I am responsible for the installation and removal of my display as scheduled. And that the Friends of the Rockaway Library is not responsible for any damages that may occur during installation, viewing period, and removal of the installation. I also understand that failure to follow the guidelines may result in not being allowed to display their work/collections in the future."

If it is a display from a group, one person may be the designated signatory. If the work is a child's display, a parent or guardian must sign.

GROUP or Child's name (if applicable)

Signature of parent, Designated Signatory or artist

Printed Name of above

Printed Address

Phone number

Date
